

Do You Remember? (The Other Half of 23)

The Maine

Do you remember
The other half of 23?
All lit up together
Full of guts and dopamine
Invincible or so it seemed

Do you remember
The days we were golden
We would surrender
To just letting go
For worse or for better
Far from pretenders
We said forever
Forever ago
Do you remember?

Do you remember?
Oh the bayside out on rockaway in June?
We'd leave the lonesome heat behind
For better weather
Sneaking out and getting stoned a time or two
Thought we were clever but I know they knew

Do you remember
The days we were golden
We would surrender
To just letting go
For worse or for better
Far from pretenders
We said forever
Forever ago
Do you remember?

Well do you remember
Oh the bayside out on rockaway in June?
Yeah on the coast where we got stoned a time or two
Had a toast to all the hopeful things we'd do
Well do you,
Do you remember?
Do you remember?

Tell me
Do you remember
The days we were golden
We would surrender
Oh to just letting go
For worse or for better
So far from pretenders
We said forever
Forever ago
Do you remember?

Tell me baby
Yeah
Oh do you?
