

Girls Do What They Want

The Maine

She's 18 and a beauty queen (beauty queen)
She makes the boys feel so weak (so weak)
It's all for her, not at all
She'll pick up just to watch you fall
It's her hands on my hips, I can't escape 'em
It's that mouth and those lips, try not to chase down
That's just the way things are
And way they'll always be

Girls do what they want
Whoa whoa
Boys do what they can
Girls do what they want
Whoa whoa
Boys do what they can

She's 18 and beauty queen
She's figured out all the boys like me
Head to toe, you know she's dressed to kill (dressed to kill)
And she could the way she's looking at me
It's her face and those eyes, I can't escape 'em
It's that mouth and those lies, try not to chase down
That's just the way things are

Girls do what they want
Whoa whoa
Boys do what they can
Girls do what they want
Whoa whoa
Boys do what they can

That's just the way, just the way, just the way things
Because the boys are feeling jealousy
And it just doesn't make any sense
Go on and tell them
All the girls are in the fellas
And it's all for them to decide in the end
And you know that all the,
The boys are falling in love
The girls who don't know what's up
We think we've all had enough of this now
These kids are talking about love
We think we've all had enough
We've had enough of this now

Girls do what they want
Whoa whoa
Boys do what they can
Girls do what they want
Whoa whoa
Boys do what they can

Girls do what they want
Whoa whoa
Boys do what they can

Whoa whoa
Boys do what they can
