

Searchin' For A Rainbow

The Marshall Tucker Band

I rode in to town today
in my mind I said
"Lord I'd love to stay"
But somethin' in me said
"Boy move on"
Don't know what it is
The good Lord bred it in my bones.

And I'm searchin' for a rainbow
And if the wind ever shows me where to go
You'll be waitin' at the end, and I'll know
I'll say "To Hell with that pot of gold"
I'll say "To Hell with that pot of gold"

This old mare I'm ridin' she's gettin' kind of tired
But in my heart she knows there's this one desire
She's gonna take me to the end of our road,
Then she lay down and die and I say "God rest her soul!"

And I'm searchin' for a rainbow
And if the wind ever shows me where to go
You'll be waitin' at the end, and I'll know
I'll say "To Hell with that pot of gold"
I'll say "To Hell with that pot of gold"

And I'm searchin' for a rainbow
And if the wind ever shows me where to go
You'll be waitin' at the end, and I'll know
I'll say "To Hell with that pot of gold"
I'll say "To Hell with that pot of gold"
