

I'm Not Gonna Cry for You

The Mavericks

I am not going to cry for you
Not gonna cry for you
Anymore

You can tell me that you still care
Darlin', I won't be there
At your door

If you think that I still need you
May you never think you're right
So don't expect to see me waiting
Morning, noon, and lonely nights

I have tried to understand you
But you have always proved me wrong
You have been the great pretender
And I have been a fool too long

I am not going to cry for you
Not gonna cry for you

You can tell me that you still care
Darlin', I won't be there
At your door
