

Summertime

The Mayfield Four

Flowers placed at the foot of the grave
Of the one we lost forever
Jesus please, let her soul rest in peace
And make way, a new angel's in Heaven

Summertime went away
Everything has been dying
Summertime went away
And the sun doesn't shine

All alone in the house we call home
And the walls still echo of her laughter
We'd dream of a world far away we'll never know
Since she left, I don't dream anymore

Summertime went away
Everything has been dying
Summertime went away
And the sun doesn't shine

Summertime went away
And everything has been dying
Summertime went away
And the sun, and the sun doesn't shine

No more
No, the sun does shine no more
Ever since you went away
Oh yeah