

Burning In The Desert Burning

The Mekons

Ignore the human sacrifice
Burning, in the desert burning
Take no notice take no care
Burning, in the desert burning
Look at the house with the swimming pool
Burning, in the desert burning
She was so young and beautiful
She went in the restaurant with her rucksack full
Burning, in the desert burning

Blind man in a wheelchair
Burning, in the desert burning
Beside the cave he had a vision
Burning, in the desert burning
Talking to god in the raining hail
Burning, in the desert burning
Take the tablets down to Joshua
Edward G. Robinson and their golden cow
Burning, in the desert burning

Coloured flags out in the street
Burning, in the desert burning
Martyrs queuing up for heaven
Burning, in the desert burning
Children queuing up for hell
Burning, in the desert burning
Somewhere out where the line ends
A lone rose
Burning, in the desert burning
Burning, burning, burning
