

Hostile Mascot

The Mekons

I'll be your Hostile mascot you can feel me on your back
I'll be your Hostile mascot down there snapping at your calves
But you're so big you're so tall I can't damage you
I look so good up on your wall making you look good

Ornamental and antagonistic
This overt warfare brings you good luck
Sleep with me but I'm still the enemy
Dual meanings of the verb to fuck

I'm your hostile mascot you can throw me in a bag
I'm your Hostile mascot you just wheel me out for laughs
So pleasant here in servitude I hear the servants say and he who serves and runs away must serve another day
I'm your hostile mascot but I'm ready for a change
And I won't stop until I drop or I am out of range
The maximum distance travelled by bullets, sound or radio waves
The geographical region where endangered creatures roam

Call off the dogs I'm home on the range
