

Point of No Return

The Mekons

i don't believe in dealing friends away for love or kicking people's hearts to get my thrills lately you are all i'm thinking of and my desire for you is growin' stronger than my will so lead me unto temptation this fire in my heart will surely burn i think i'm trailing off the the straight and narrow path i wal k there's a darker side of love i'm bound to learn i'm standing at the point of no return sometimes the difference between right and wrong is fear and sometimes love is something that you steal there's someting that gets me everytime your near and all i really care about is how you make me feel there's people in our lives don't deserve these kind of lies and the heartaches that we all seem to pretend it gets stronger every day gets hard to turn away when i look across the room and catch you staring
so lead me unto temptation
this fire in my heart will surely burn
k
i'm standing at the point of no return
