

Another Day On Fire

The Meteors

I burn in hell each in every day cos of the things I do and say I signed my name down in his book I didnt read it didnt even take a look I thought I would have no regrets thought I could take it and pass every test I got it all thats what I thought but I learned a lesson truly Ive been taught

Ill spend another day on fire
cos I cant have you
Ill spend another day on fire
cos thats just what Ive gotta do wrapped in my world of sin know that Ill have to burn again eternally I scream for thee a lost soul in furnace of insanity

Ill spend another day on fire
cos I cant have you
cos thats just what Ive gotta do

I know stories have their twists but what the hell could go wrong with this I fell in love but its too late I burn here behind hells own gate

Ill spend another day on fire
cos I cant have you
Ill spend another day on fire
Ill spend another day on fire
cos I cant have you
cos thats just what I've gotta do
