Open and Honest

The Mighty Mighty Bosstones

Open and honest if you'd just let me level May I say we've been this way now since the day we met the devi 1 What we do and don't we know how to do and won't be Bought and sold controlled or told he don't know how to revel What it was we were wearing the noise that you've been hearing A culmination of an awful lot of people caring Lets face what you're afraid of to find out what we're made of In the process made aware that there is nothing here worth fear inq Open and honest that is just my suggestion You don't know when they might throw at you curve ball or a que stion And even if you knew it you might not know who threw it That might be worse I'm thinking or that might be my impression So let's not mention who you paid attention to Could not afford to get on board but something struck a cord wi th you And then from that point on you knew you were to far gone To go back when there's more I'm sure to go for and look forwar d to Well aware and self asserted warned and well alerted A bond so strong it can't be wrong and it will never be deserte d Stick together that's the plan stick to that the best we can Nothing left to say Thank you Well aware and self asserted warned and well alerted A bond so strong it can't be wrong and it will never be deserte d Stick together that's the plan stick to that the best we can Nothing left to say Thank you
