

Deliverance

The Mission

Believe in magic believe in lore legend and myth
And the hand that guides in the cunning of hope
In the weaving of dreams and the lady of the lake

Takes my hand and leads me to the holy isle
And the fairy rings and the circles of stone
Forever and again

Give me, give me, give me, deliverance
Brother, sister, give me, give me
Deliverance, deliver me

Surrender to the wisdom of age and the spirits of time
Remember our souls entwined for eternity
And the healing hand of the fairy queen

Will come to all who have faith in her
And the apple tree will bear its fruit
In the gardens of Avalon
Forever and again

Give me, give me, give me deliverance
Brother, sister, give me, give me
Deliverance, deliver me

Give me, give me, give me, deliverance
Brother, sister, give me, give me
Deliverance, deliver me

Let me sleep for awhile and dream of Avalon
And the Beltane fires and a silent kiss
Steals away into the mist and out to the lake

Where the sword will rise again from the water
Into the hands of the chosen one the righteous one
Forever and again

Give me, give me, give me, deliverance
Brother, sister, give me, give me
Deliverance, deliver me

Give me, give me, give me, deliverance
Brother, sister, give me, give me
Deliverance, deliver me
