

That Tears Shall Drown the Wind

The Mission

I can't believe that you've been faking all this time That's such a spiteful thing to say I can't believe you never really cared How am I supposed to know that you feel this way ?

I don't see how it matters now That tears shall drown the wind
I don't see why it makes you cry That tears shall drown the wind

I never promised you that the stars would come to us You have to know I never lied I know you feel it's like waiting for the end of the world Sometimes it's easy just to let it go, let it slide

There ain't no sense in making accusations No matter if you're wrong you're always right There ain't no point in recrimination
I really don't have the strength to put up a fight
