

I Don't Want You To Want Me

The Moffatts

Jump in let's go
Sit back and enjoy the show
There are miles to go
There are miles to go

This could be the night
The only night
But something you should know

I don't want you to want me
'Cause I'll hurt you in the end
I don't need you to need me
Tonight I'll hold you tight
But I won't come back again
Come back again

Don't think it's wrong
I just need somebody
And life goes on
And life goes on

Stay with me tonight, this only night
Don't forget you know

I don't want you to want me
'Cause I'll hurt you in the end
I don't need you to need me tonight I'll hold you tight
but I won't come back again

Stay with me tonight, this only night
Don't forget you know
I don't want you to want me
'Cause I'll hurt you in the end

I don't need you to need me
tonight I'll hold you tight
but I won't come back again
come back again

Yeah well I don't need you to need me
tonight I'll hold you tight
but I won't come back again
