

Just Another Phase

The Moffatts

Sit around and watch tv
God, I hate what I see
Lock me up and throw away the key
Spend my time chugging tea

But I can't, I can't
It's not fair, it's not fair
Think about it
While gettin' grey hair

Throw my change at a machine
Buy a chocolate bar so I can dream
Another day going down the drain
Wash away and wash away the pain

But I can't, I can't
It's not fair, it's not fair
Think about it
While gettin' grey hair

It's just another phase that I'll go through
This time I'm sure that I'll lose you
Place my bets on all the jacks and queens
Probability being that it seems

I'm blind, I'm blind

As I drift away
I heard a cry
And I'm checking around to see if everyone is still alive
I peel myself back to the black of night
Everything from here is controlled right
