Walking Behind

The Moffatts

She's running And he's walking behind He's trying But he's last in her line His love's dying but he keeps on tryin He lives in fear with a love that's clear (he's walking behind) He's got love that he needs to give but she's afraid to let him in To her world with no together She can't see him in her picture She wants love but her heart won't let her let him in He's walking behind He's walking behind The phone's ringin Is it her on the line? Does he answer Or is he wasting his time? Her loves dying but she keeps on trying She lives in fear of a love that's clear (She's walking behind) She's got love that she needs to give but he's afraid to let her in To his world with no together He can't see her in his picture He wants love but his heart won't let him let her in She's walkin behind Yeah They've got a love to give But they're afraid to let it in She's got a love to give And he's got a love to give So let em in Yeah In a world with no together She can't see him in her picture She wants love so let him in To his world with no together He can't see her in his picture He wants love but his heart won't let him let her in He's walking behind

She's walking behind
