

A Little Bit Me, a Little Bit You

The Monkees

Walk out
Girl, don't you walk out
We've got things to say
Talked out; let's have it talked out
Things will be okay

Girl
I don't want to find
That I'm a little bit wrong
And you're a little bit right
I said, girl
You know that it's true
It's a little bit me (a little bit me)
And it's a little bit you, too

Don't know just what I said wrong
But, girl, I apologize
Don't go; here's where you belong
So, wipe the tears from your eyes

Girl
I don't want to find
That I'm a little bit wrong
And you're a little bit right
I said, girl
You know that it's true
It's a little bit me
And it's a little bit you, too

Oh girl
I don't want to find
I'm a little bit wrong
And you're a little bit right
I said, girl
You know that it's true
It's a little bit me
And it's a little bit you, too

It's a little bit me
It's a little bit you
Girl, don't go
No, no, no, no, no
Girl, don't go
No, no, no, no, no
Hey, girl
