Sorry

The Moody Blues

Just look at me now Because I'm tired of yelling Look at me now It's only me I'm selling I'm not willing to trade My life to make the sale You turn me around You're puttin' me down Look at me now

I'm hanging out my heart to dry
For the last time
I'll tell you the reason why
It's for the last time

Laid back uptown turnaround people lie Laid back uptown turnaround people wear disguises "Sorry" a word they only use too late "Sorry" is a word that only ever means forgive my yesterdays

Laid-back uptown turnaround people lie Laid-back uptown turnaround people wear disguises And "sorry", that's a word they can only use too late "Sorry" is a word that only ever means forgive my yesterdays Sorry..

Here I am, loving you You're laying there so quietly I can feel your breath upon my skin Afterglow came suddenly With you it always did

I'm hanging out my heart to dry [Look at me now]
For the last time
I'll tell you the reason why [Look at me now]
It's for the last time
Laid-back uptown turnaround people lie
[Look at me now]
Laid-back uptown turnaround people wear disguises

They say "Sorry" That's a word they only use too late "Sorry" is a word that only ever means Forgive my yesterdays

Uptown people lie Laid-back uptown turnaround people wear disguises They say "Sorry" That's a word they only use too late "Sorry" is a word that only ever means forgive... Sorry
