

Chasing sparks in your footprints
Newer wounds to my old lints
Newer dawn hunting for me

The faint sound of your breathing
Gives the nights a new meaning
You fulfill what was empty

Fall to the ground
But no longer bound
We're sentenced to be together

Just give a sign
And everything that's mine
Can be yours

Never trust them at all
Believe me I've got more
Leave your life
To live mine
Dare to cross the old lines / Release the hold of time

Whisper songs into your ears
Purest fog into your dreams
While you're asleep
I'm standing here

Waiting for a new morning
When all my hurt and every sin
Is abolished by our glow

Don't be afraid
Join the masquerade
We'll leave this place with wading glory

Just give a sign
And everything that's mine
Can be yours

Just give a sign
And everything that's mine
Can be yours

Never trust them anymore
Believe me I've got more
