I want you to be true 'cause sometimes I don't understand The things you do

I won't save you From the ways you so so Wrongly want to choose

If you blame your failures
On some other guys
Then I cannot tell you how to survive X2

Yeah

Please don't try to Pretend that you're alright And there's nothing to lose

There is no way
You can fool me with
The bullshit that you say

If you blame your failures
On some other guys
Then I cannot tell you how to survive X2

Yeah

You never reach what you need If you go on with this X4

Everything just goes by
