

All Day Day Light

The Morning Benders

What can only be here
Get too hot and can't go on
I grew up in a town much different than this one
Where the language is upside down

So we can't talk about it
You try your best to stay awake
I been digging so long
I don't know which hole I should take

But you put me on this vacation
It's really not the time
It's winter halfway across the world
Somewhere its bright daylight

And somewhere someone sails the ocean
Somewhere someone's telling the seas
Somewhere someone's calling out my name
Somewhere they can't see me
They can't see me

I lived in the background
I sleep behind the scenes
I had someone take all my calls
And watched them outplay me

And I can't believe what you're hearing
I can't believe what you said
I can't believe I can't find this damn address
Before I drop dead

And somewhere someone sails the ocean
And somewhere someone's running the streets
Somewhere someone's calling out my name
Somewhere they're looking for me