All Day Day Light

The Morning Benders

What can only be here Get too hot and can't go on I grew up in a town much different than this one Where the language is upside down

So we can't talk about it You try your best to stay awake I been digging so long I don't know which hole I should take

But you put me on this vacation It's really not the time It's winter halfway across the world Somewhere its bright daylight

And somewhere someone sails the ocean Somewhere someone's telling the seas Somewhere someone's calling out my name Somewhere they can't see me They can't see me

I lived in the background I sleep behind the scenes I had someone take all my calls And watched them outplay me

And I can't believe what you're hearing I can't believe what you said I can't believe I can't find this damn address Before I drop dead

And somewhere someone sails the ocean And somewhere someone's running the streets Somewhere someone's calling out my name Somewhere they're looking for me