

Wasted Time

The Morning Benders

Watching the clock steal my time
Turning other people's words to mine
Sometimes they keep just one thing
Try to melt it down a bit

So are you through wasting my time?
Or have you brought me something new?
Because all I see is you

Playing games, but this is real life
This one is worth putting up the fight
You're a child in the midst of things
You're a beast in a woman's frame

So are you through wasting my time?
Or have you brought me something new?
Because all I see is you
