

The Ones That Fall Apart

The Morning Of

stay, this isn't the way you should leave well it feels like you wanted this now that i'm waiting, love doesn't feel the same you're sorry it's not meant to be well i know you were feeling it all that i wanted, all that i needed was change well i feel it building up but they said the worst is yet to come oh god, i hope they're wrong i can't face the world outside and oh, we are the ones that fall apart when love is never enough to keep our hearts growing it's never enough to keep our hearts growing say, it isn't as bad as it seems when you can't bother looking and sorry it wasn't all that you wanted & more

well i feel it building up they said the worst is yet to come

and oh, we are the ones that fall apart
never enough to keep our hearts growing

and oh, oh, oh, oh, oh i'm sorry it wasn't all that you wanted in love oh, we are the ones that fall apart

oh, we are the ones that fall apart
it's never enough to keep our hearts growing
it's never enough to keep our hearts growing
