Danger

The Motels

Danger Your love is like a stranger So close, and yet so far away Daily I make you my only By giving you everything That I have Late at night When I want you I just close my eyes and I pray Late at night when I need you I just stop To me I say Danger Your love is like a stranger So close, and yet so far away Nightly I dream how it might be If I gave you everything That I have Late at night When I want you I just close my eyes and I pray Late at night when I need you I just stop To me I say Danger Late at night When I want you I just close my eyes and I pray Late at night When I need you I just stop To me I say Danger Your love is like a stranger So close, so close, so far