

Isle Of You

The Motels

I'm running as fast as I can
I run until I find another land
Where I can be safe from
The one that enslaves me
Everywhere I turn I see your face
It's no better anyplace
I got to get away
From the one that drives me insane

What could be more beautiful
What could be more nice
Has turned my heart to stone
And love to cold, cold ice

Escape from the isle of you
Forever, no I don't want to
Escape from the isle of you
If I watch my step might be safe
From the isle of you

Sometimes I think that it's too late
Sometimes I think that it's my fate
To live this life of love forever
Without my heart feeling better

What could be more beautiful
What could be more nice
Has turned my heart to stone
And love to cold, cold ice

Escape from the isle of you
Forever, no I don't want to
Escape from the isle of you
If I watch my step might be safe
From the isle of you

Escape from the isle of you
Forever, no I don't want to
Escape from the isle of you
