

Genesis 19 1-2

The Mountain Goats

the girl who'd been haunting your dreams all your life the butcher from brooklyn, the butcher's wife the girl who kissed you in the seventh grade her and all the others lined up behind the gate the two angels came to sodom in the evening when the sun up in the sky was bleeding all over you and you had your camera and you had your felt tip and you had some money and you had everything you needed

we saw you coming up the boulevard
when the sun was bleeding all over you
