

Going to Maryland

The Mountain Goats

the water's real cool and the water's real sweet here's hoping that no points repeat because i bet against the chances that you'd ever be mine laid everything down on the don't pass line and it's a stupid trick of fortune anyway but the lights are bright tonight and your eyes shine tonight on chesapeake bay walk through the water and our feet get wet and on the dark ended water i see your silhouette 5 dollars says that it's gone in a minute 5 dollars says that your heart goes with it
