

Jam Eater Blues

The Mountain Goats

Life is too short to refrain from eating jam out of the jar.
Life is too short to refrain from eating jam out of the jar.
And life is too short to wait around for you to come home tonight.

Life is too short,
Too short to do that.

Life is too short to leave the windows open all winter long.
Life is too short to leave the windows open all winter long.
I'm gonna lock 'em up tight and eat jam out of the jar all night.
'Cause life is too short to make toast,
Or use spoons or napkins.

Life is too short to spend the rest of it down here in tampa.
Life is too short to spend the rest of it down here in tampa.
Yeah, life is too short to let it go to waste like this,
But I never tasted jam before that tastes like this.
And life is too short to refrain from eating jam out of the jar
