New Monster Avenue

The Mountain Goats

Shadows on the broad lawn canopy of trees Sometime after midnight the ground is gonna freeze Birds in the frosty air What are they doing there?

Greenhouse full of butchers brooms Breezes at my back Sometime before the sun comes up The earth is gonna crack

I look down at my hands Like they were mirrors

Fresh coffee at sunrise
Warm my lips against the cup
Been waiting such a long time now
My number's finally coming up

All the neighbors come on out to their front porches Waving torches
