The Black Ice Cream Song

The Mountain Goats

And the heat came down I knew I was living in a long, long dream when you fed me the black ice cream and the heat rose up I heard the loud loud buzzing of our son's go-kart and the ice cream was blacker than the devil's heart It was august the 19th, 1957 I fixed my eyes on you, fixed my eyes on you