

Looking On

The Move

Standing up in someone's place
Looking down on me
Now I may behold you face
As it's supposed to be
Get you in
I've tried enough to keep you clean
Give you in
You take a yard
You're too real mean

Oh may it not be so
See me looking down
I'm just Looking On

Standing with my head so messed
Closing down on me
There's a pain inside my chest
Where my soul should be
Give you in
I see you as they all spy now
Get you in
They be you as they all cry now.

Oh may it not be so
See me looking down
I'm just Looking On

Standing up in someone's place
Looking down on me
Now I may behold you face
As it's supposed to be
Get you in
I've tried enough to keep you clean
Give you in
You take a yard
You're too real mean

Oh may it not be so
See me looking down
I'm just Looking On
