

Another Friend

The Movielifa

All I ever see is one or two feet in front of me,
And no matter how far I get, I always got one demon left,
And all the time I gave, I dug myself a deeper grave,
And it's not the same. I need to wake up, 'cause this ain't a f ucking game.

I need to know where I stand, 'cause I don't need another frien d.

Why can't things once just go my way? Stop telling lies to me,
I know it seems like every day things don't go my way.
Things don't go my way.

And all I ever see is centimeters in front of me,
And no matter how far I get, I always got one problem left,
And all the time I gave, I dug myself a deeper grave,
And it's not the same. And in the end (in the end) I'll be the one to blame.

I need to know where I stand, 'cause I don't need another frien d.

Why can't things once just go my way? Stop telling lies to me,
I know it seems like every day. Stop telling lies to me.

I need to know where I stand, 'cause I don't,
No I don't need another friend. No I don't need another friend.
Just let me know where I stand.
