

The stars are out tonight,
But I wouldn't know because you put me here.
But I'll see you soon and let you know
Just how irrational I can be.
Can't help but think your time will come.
Hesitate to blink, don't wanna miss a thing.
But I'm not gonna fold.
I'm not gonna sit and watch you fk my life.
'Cause I've got nine more fingernails to bite off
And friends money couldn't buy.
Can't help but think your time will come.
Hesitate to blink, don't wanna miss a thing.
I'll get through this, and come out on top.
I'll get through this, or just wish it away. (Away!)
Can't help but think your time will come.
Hesitate to blink, don't wanna miss a thing.
Miss a thing, miss a thing, miss a thing.
Miss a thing, miss a thing, yeah yeah.
