

Maybe It's Nothing

The Movieline

I got that feeling like someone's standing behind me.
Maybe it's nothing, but maybe it's everything.
I can't help this feeling I got.
Maybe it's nothing, and maybe it's not.
I think I'll just stay inside today.

There's no time to lose, and no time to spare.
Sitting next to you, pretending you were here.

I got that feeling like someone's standing behind me.
Oh yeah, I thought it might be you.
I can't even look in your face.
All those years of friendship, what a fucking waste.
I hope you're happy.

There's no time to lose, and no time to spare.
Sitting next to you, pretending you were here.
