

Train station knows every word you said.
Vacation from all the games we played.

(I turn away.) Long Island's calling me.
(I lost it all.) My clothes smell like the city.
(Leave me for dead.) The train will get me home.
(Drag me away.) I don't know what's good for me.
I don't know what's good for me.

Every bone in my body breaks (brakes) for you.
Believe me, 'cause by now I can barely move.

(I turn away.) Long Island's calling me.
(I lost it all.) My clothes smell like the city.
(Leave me for dead.) The train will get me home.
(Drag me away.) I don't know what's good for me.

Never let someone become,
Never let someone become,
Never let someone become,
Never let someone become everything. Everything.

(I turn away.) Long Island's calling me.
(I lost it all.) My clothes smell like the city.
(Leave me for dead.) The train will get me home.
(Drag me away.) Drag me away.
