The Mr. T Experience

She was young and she was free she went on a shopping spree she bought some records she bought a pot this is what she bought records and a pot yeah oh yeah what records did she buy? Naked Raygun and Crimpshrine, Dickies, Rezillos and Aerosmith this is what she picked and a Lurkers 7" yeah oh yeah she's so beautiful she loves rock and roll she is pretty fun she's so fast and loud yeah she's rockin out now she's making lunch where did she put this stuff there wasn't room enough she put these things in the trunk of her car that is where they are the trunk of her car yeah oh yeah she's so wonderful she's a lovable lost and lonely child she's a little thing it's the little things that make life worthwhile she went shopping she had a shopping spree I was on her mind that's a special time in our otherwise uneventful lives.
