

Swallow Everything

The Mr. T Experience

There were things I could have told you but you've heard it all before and you look so calm and peaceful when you're passed out on the floor swallow everything swallow everything you're the pellet with the poison you're the hand that holds the pearl you're an alcohol girl in an alcohol world swallow everything swallow everything that's how a little bit of me becomes a part of you and I know I shouldn't be complaining cause I enjoy it too the eyes of a zombie and the will of a table for two swallow everything reject nothing you plant a new emergency for everyone you kill it's a fluid it's a solid it's a powder it's a pill swallow everything swallow everything seeing double feeling single weigh the benefits and costs double single single double double single double crossed swallow everything swallow everything and someone will always be there for you to tell you what to say and you know you'll never walk alone cause you can't control your legs you know you'll believe it and it's only a weekend away swallow everything reject nothing.