

Up And Down

The Mr. T Experience

Hey Jon, can you count to four?

1, 2, 3, 4

I look up and see a pigeon flying high and free

I look down and then the sidewalk is what I see

I look up and see the sky

I look down and see the ground

I look at you and sing a song about up and down

I look up and see a sky scraper, yes I do

I look down and see my foot and then I see my shoe

I look up and see the sky

I look down and see the ground

I look at you and sing a song about up and down

I look up and see the ceiling and nothing more

I look down and see the rug, then I see the floor

I look up and see the sky

I look down and see the ground

I look at you and sing a song about up and down

Oh, up and down, and down

Up and down
