

Lay Down

The Muffs

You're like rainy dancer
You've got a lot of thought
And finally you stop and you point down you're tired.
We can't ignore you too long,
You need a...
The violin is on fire, but your heart is bright.
Any time and everywhere, you're telling me that you're out there
Would you rather have a clue
And sit back and try to be

Chorus:

Lay down and try to forget I'm a girl
Everything you laid down and try to forget
It's so much better!

You're like an older actor,
You're munching all the time
You can't keep all, cause you're starting to.,...
Your mind is going too old,
Your heart is overdone
And now that you're tired and you're alone...
What you want and what you need...
Would you rather make a scene
And sit back, enjoy it now?

Chorus:

Lay down and try to forget I'm a girl
Everything you laid down and try to forget
It's so much better!

I see an ugly day ahead of you
And all you have to do
All you got to do

Chorus:

Is lay down and try to forget I'm a girl
Everything you lay down and try to forget
It's so much better!
When you lay down and try to forget I'm a girl
Everything you lay down and try to forget
It's so much better
It's so much better!
It's so much better!
So much better
So much better
So much better
