"Be Kind"

thanks to Brian Fennell (fenn@wpi.WPI.EDU) Be kind to your neighborhood monsters for they are not as scarry as they seem if you see one scaddeling down the lane or paddeling up the stream
don't scream
for a monster could be somebody's mommy
and their feelings aren't exactly made of wood so offer one a piece of your salami be kind to the monsters in your neighborhood (hmmmmm hum hmm hum)
daring and brave (la la la and something) monsters never misbehave
or hardly ever loving and loyal
true to the end
hairy, but Not scarry monsters want to be your friend
be kind to the monsters in you neighborhood
be kind
to the monsters
in your neighbor-
hood
