

Storms Of The Sea

The Murder of My Sweet

I challenge the sun while the moon lights your face for eternity

Hoist the sails
Please be fair
Release my aching heart
He is there
My beloved
Let the winds take me where I belong
I've fooled the Atlantic
I've crossed all the seas
Darling the waves to get you close to me
While the stars show the way
The hours betray
Saltwater drying my face

I challenge the sun
While the moon lights your face for eternity
Challenge the storm
Here I am miles away navigating stars
(in my dreams)
Full sails ahead!
Riding the storms of the sea

Seven days
Seven nights
I've been away from you
Turning the hourglass
My feet long for the sand
All of these letters
I've sent them to you
Sealed with a kiss and a hope for the truth
While the stars show the way
The hours betray
Saltwater drying my face

I challenge the sun
While the moon lights your face for eternity
Challenge the storm
Here I am miles away navigating stars
(in my dreams)
Full sails ahead!
Riding the storms of the sea

Why chase shadows when light is up ahead
Hold on love, I am close

I challenge the sun
While the moon lights your face for eternity
Challenge the storm
Here I am miles away navigating stars
(full sails ahead) Bring him to me
I challenge the sun to take my love away, for it's meant to be
(in my dreams)
Full sails ahead!

cos he's waiting for me
The storms of the sea

light your face for eternity
