The Geese of Beverly Road

The National

We'll take ourselves out in the street And wear the blood in our cheeks like red roses We'll go from car to sleeping car and whisper in their sleeping ears We were here, we were here We'll set off the geese of Beverly Road

Hey love, we'll get away with it We'll run like we're awesome, totally genius Hey love, we'll get away with it We'll run like we're awesome

We won't be disappointed We'll fight like girls for our place at the table Our room on the floor We'll set off the geese of Beverly Road

Hey love, we'll get away with it We'll run like we're awesome, totally genius Hey love, we'll get away with it We'll run like we're awesome

We're the heirs to the glimmering world We're the heirs to the glimmering world We're the heirs to the glimmering world We're the heirs to the glimmering world

We're drunk and sparking, our legs are open Our hands are covered in cake But I swear we didn't have any I swear we didn't have any

We're the heirs to the glimmering world We're the heirs to the glimmering world We're the heirs to the glimmering world We're the heirs to the glimmering world

Oh, come, come be my waitress and serve me tonight Serve me the sky tonight Oh, come, come be my waitress and serve me tonight Serve me the sky with a big slice of lemon

We're the heirs to the glimmering world We're the heirs to the glimmering world We're the heirs to the glimmering world We're the heirs to the glimmering world

Oh, come, come be my waitress and serve me tonight Serve me the sky tonight Oh, come, come be my waitress and serve me tonight Serve me the sky with a big slice of lemon
