

Invisible Tonight

The Nearly Deads

Expect perfection that I don't have
You wanted me reimpulled, I'm not your girl
Not a lover of words, I'm a lover of sounds
And you never understand because you're never around

Expect a lot of things
And pretend like you're not condescending
If you'd only listened to me
You'd know I'm drowning slowly

These walls keep closing in on me again
So sorry but I've got to go

I wanna fade away and watch you win
I never wanna try and go all in
I've got nothing to walk, but I'm givin' in
I've got to go, cause I'm invisible

And I try to rise above the noise
But it never matters, you're counting me out
Why can't you just see that I just wanna be
A part of the world imaginary

If anyone's listenin', I wouldn't know
Cause it's all about you and you're stealin' the show
All this thinking could get me in trouble
So I order a drink and I may get a double

Drowning all my sorrows here again and again
And again. So sorry, but I've got to go

I wanna fade away and watch you win
I never wanna try and go all in
I've got nothing to walk, but I'm givin' in
I've got to go, cause I'm invisible

And I think I want to be invisible tonight
Cause you, that's how you like me
I covered up, I'm barely there
I walked away but you don't care
I'm sorry but I've got to go
I can't do this!

I wanna fade away and watch you win
I never wanna try go all in
I've got nothing to walk, but I'm givin' in
I've got to go, cause I'm invisible
