

Leaving Tonight

The Neighbourhood

You fooled me from the start
When you let me start to love you
It's like a bunch of broken picture frames but
The photo still remains the same
And I, and I thought it'd be easy to run
But my legs are broken

All alone, all we know
It's haunting me
Making it harder to breathe, harder to breathe, oh
I'm leaving tonight (3x) yeah
I'm leaving tonight (2x)
I'll be gone in the morning

I saw it from a far,
But my eyes have always fooled me
It looked to me like all the sidewalks started walking
I swear to god the voices wouldn't shut up,
I figured it all to be love,
But this isn't lovely

All alone, all we know
It's haunting me
Making it harder to breathe, harder to breathe, oh
I'm leaving tonight (3x) yeah
I'm leaving tonight (2x)
I'll be gone in the morning

All alone, all we know
It's haunting me
Making it harder to breathe, harder to breathe, oh
I'm leaving tonight (3x) yeah
I'm leaving tonight (2x)
I'll be gone in the morning
