So, Very Avoidable

The Nerve Agents

The blood... red... flowing
A lifeless draining two dead
One on the way,
How is that for control?
Irresponsible!
You paid with their lives in full

With your good friends dead Tell me how will you live? Stained walls, a dark memory Of the night hat you did... Drive drunk... In control? You were not When you crashed in the pole

So, very avoidable!

But your friends are dead now you see your friends all dead now In the early wakening hours... dripping with sweat
