

Lonely Hearts

The New Amsterdams

All that i have is finally over
Good knocking again
I've given the chance, do it all over
To lose her again
Sleep tight, never you mind
Lonely hearts breaking tonight
Never i dared had i, been close to sober
Is out of my head
Back of my mind if i only had shown her
Shed be mine again
Sleep tight, never you mind
Lonely hearts are breaking tonight
