

Hello, I Am Your Heart

The Nitty Gritty Dirt Band

Hello, I am your heart
And you got me broken one too many times
Oh hello, this is your heart speakin'
And you got me hurt boy, one too many times

Goin' away on a little vacation
I'll be gone quite a while
You won't have you no love makin'
You'll just have that ten cent smile

Goodbye
This is your heart leavin'
I wish you the best of luck
While I'm healin' up

Oh hello, this is your heart
I just telephoned to see how you're getting by
Oh hello, this is your heart callin'
Well, I've got to run now but I'll drop you a line

I'm havin' fun on my little vacation
I may be gone a while
You won't have you no love makin'
You'll just have that ten cent smile

Hello
This is your heart
I wish you the best of luck
While I'm healing up

Oh, goodbye
Goodbye
