

Somethin' Dangerous

The Nitty Gritty Dirt Band

Well ever since Adam said hello to Eve What the leaf was coverin' he couldn't believe Until this day remains the same
No matter the face, no matter the name

She walks through the door in her high heeled shoes
Ruby lips, merci beaucoup Code blue alert, in its finest form Note to self, you might be better off gone

To feel the thrill, you must be brave
Big love's tough, sometimes you have to pay
So buckle up and take a chance, throw caution to the wind Cause when you walk, you walk a wire and face the consequence

Somethin' dangerous, Somethin' dangerous, Somethin' dangerous i s coming Somethin' dangerous, Somethin' dangerous, Somethin' dangerous i s near Somethin' dangerous, Somethin' dangerous, Somethin' dangerous i
s coming
Somethin' dangerous, Somethin' dangerous, Somethin' dangerous i s here

Now I'm running with scissors in the dark of night (Somethin' dangerous is comin')
Half scared to death, half so...alive (Somethin' dangerous is near)
No return to the eden, of that I'm sure (Somethin' dangerous is comin')
I've tasted the apple, girl open the door (Somethin' dangerous is here)

To win a hand, you must be brave
Big love's tough, sometimes you have to pay
Buckle up and take a chance, throw caution to the wind
Cause when you walk, you walk a wire and face the consequence

Somethin' dangerous, Somethin' dangerous, Somethin' dangerous i
s coming
Somethin' dangerous, Somethin' dangerous, Somethin' dangerous i
s near Somethin' dangerous, Somethin' dangerous, Somethin' dangerous i
s coming
Somethin' dangerous, Somethin' dangerous, Somethin' dangerous i
s here
Somethin' dangerous, Somethin' dangerous, Somethin' dangerous i
s coming

Somethin' dangerous, Somethin' dangerous, Somethin' dangerous i
s near Somethin' dangerous, Somethin' dangerous, Somethin' dangerous i
s coming
Somethin' dangerous, Somethin' dangerous, Somethin' dangerous i
s here
