

Truly Right

The Nitty Gritty Dirt Band

I decided just to make my mind up suddenly today
Something moved me to play the game again
I've been trying not to believe what my friends have said to me
But it's truly
Truly right
Truly right as rain

There's another place yet to go before I loose the way
There's a woman I pray that I should see
I've realized a little late but sadder is the fate
That it's truly
Truly right
Truly right as rain

I know I'm holding a one way ticket in my hand
I'd like to come back ...Understand

I didn't know I didn't know I would
I didn't know I didn't know I would wreck some lives
And though I understood I didn't really think I could
I didn't know I didn't know I would

I've been trying not to believe what my friends have said to me
I'm inclined to agree with them again
When I win I don't feel right, so I'm losing tonight
And it's truly
Truly right
Truly right as rain

Truly
Truly right
Truly right as rain
