

Tryin' To Try

The Nitty Gritty Dirt Band

Threwed a rock through your window
Just to let you know I love you
Just to let you know that I care
And I ain't scared to have you see
The way I feel

Blowed a kiss through your keyhole
Just to let you know I'm breathing
Oh, Just to try and smack you in the heart
If I were smart I'd give up
And go back home

I'm not tryin' to say I'm sorry
I'm tryin' to say I love you
Not tryin' to make excuses
Nor put myself above you
I'm not tryin' to rearrange it
Not tryin' to change it
The only thing I'm tryin' to do
Is try ---

Well I hung out by your back porch
Just to try and catch you leaving
Oh, just to catch you unaware
That's not fair, I don't care
Cause I ain't proud

And I leaned on your door bell
Just to see if you would answer
Oh, just to see if you would open up
No such luck, I'll come back when you calm down

I'm not tryin' to say I'm sorry
I'm tryin' to say I love you
Not tryin' to make excuses
Nor put myself above you
I'm not tryin' to rearrange it
Not tryin' to change it
The only thing I'm tryin' to do
Is try ---
